“ I knew Doug for over 5 years. I was always to see a smile on his face, the beautiful woodwork he spun out of his hands unto the raw piece of wood to a shimmering gift of "DOUG". Taking his rent was always a pleasure and a time to relate in our SUPER LEO Being of our birth date being so close, we marveled in the fun of years past. A kind soul, kind heart. Fishing Tv shows we shared the joy of big catches. The float of the boat and the feel of the sun. It would be an honor to have a piece of his woodworking! He cherished the hands on of life.

I just found out about Doug's passing, today. Sorry that I did not know sooner. I'm a childhood neighbor kid that lived two doors west of the Shaub's. My condolences.
