He was a First Lieutenant Executive Officer for the 28th Engineering Battalion and had a Honorable Discharge in July 1970. Jim also received an Army Commendation Medal. After returning home from the war Jim began his long and successful career in the textile business, following in the footsteps of the Kunik family's history of tailoring and textiles. He earned an MBA in Marketing at Temple University, attended the Philadelphia College of Textile and Science and took the Dale Carnegie Sales Course, coming in first in his class. Jim won many awards over the years for his sales and marketing skills. In the last several years Jim sold quilting fabric to quilting business throughout several northeastern states, making friends with the owners who sent cards, called Jim and even made him a special quilt.

Among his other interests, Jim was also a Life Master Bridge Player, a scratch golfer, a skilled skier, and a runner who ran triathlons to raise funds for the Leukemia Society. In recent years, Jim and Pat traveled around the world with friends and took an annual Christmas island cruise after their annual Christmas party. “ I want to thank Ester from hospice, on the last day of my brother's life my sister maryanne me, my husband and Jim's wonderful daughters were there. My brother wasn't quite responsive at the time, but Ester so lovingly let his daughters and my sister share pictures, memories. Ester said this is good and what alot of grieving families do. So kind and good of her! Also a couple days before when my brother was more responsive Jim's wonderful daughters played all his favorite songs and he was mouthing the words. It was the most beautiful memory I will cherish. Ester smiled, comforted those who cried,..Jim's girls played them all and Jim sang the best he could and we all cried too. Phantom of the opera, John Denver, and I never knew my brother liked the beegees! Landslide, a beautiful song of daughter to dad from stevie Nick's! . My sister Terry was also there. And my brother liked Neil diamond! So do I..! Ty Ester !! May God bless you and your family ALWAYS!!

Jim was a fantastic person! I played a lot of bridge with Jim over the years. One reason he liked bridge so much was that he met so many people by playing. Jim truly liked people! One memory that I have of Jim was how well he treated his mother when she was alive but aging. You can tell a lot about a man by how he treats his mother, and Jim gave his mother such great care--it was touching to see. I'll also miss his tremendous enthusiasm for Villanova basketball--a college from which we both graduated. Jim will truly be missed. Sam Yake
