

Edgar B. Lackey

July 11, 2013

Edgar B. Lackey, 50, of Bainbridge, PA, died at his residence on Wednesday evening, July 10, 2013. He was born in Princeton, N.J., the son of Rosemary Andrews-Cooper, Willow Street, PA, and the late James B. Lackey.

He was a graduate of Lampeter-Strasburg High School, where he played football and midget football. Edgar was employed at Rheems Quarry in Elizabethtown, PA. Prior to that, he was employed by Andrews Excavating, Inc., and Fertrell Industries. Edgar sang with the Atlanta Boys Choir in 1972-73. Edgar was a member of the Bainbridge VFW, and enjoyed a variety of outdoor activities including camping, hunting and fishing. His hobbies included woodworking and training dogs. He loved family gatherings, country music, and cooking on the grill.

In addition to his mother and stepfather, David W. Cooper, he is survived by two brothers: Todd Lackey of Marienville, PA, and James B. Lackey of Rock Hill, S.C.; two stepbrothers David W. Cooper, Jr., husband of Judy Phillips Cooper, of East Petersburg, PA, and Jeffrey B. Cooper of Lancaster, PA; and nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a gathering in Edgar's memory at The Groffs Family Funeral & Cremation Services, 528 West Orange Street, Lancaster, PA (corner of Orange and Pine) on Wednesday, July 17, 2013 from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Please omit flowers. Memorials in Edgar's name may be made to the Naaman Center of Elizabethtown, Substance Abuse Treatment Services, 4600 East Harrisburg Pike, Elizabethtown, PA 17022.

Private interment will take place at the Willow Street Mennonite Cemetery.

“ Rosemary and family, We are thinking and praying for you...sorry we were out of town for the service. When I saw his photo in the paper, memories of good times came flashing back (all relating to times at church, of course) re: you, the boys, and even Beau!
