

Edgar P. Wanner

December 10, 2013

Edgar P. Wanner, 94, went home to be with the Lord on Monday, December 9, 2013 at Conestoga View. Born in Coatesville, PA, he was the son of the late Edgar and Mabel Keller Wanner and the husband of the late Rose Russo Wanner, who died in 2003.

He was in the first graduating class of the J.P. McCaskey High School. Ed retired from Armstrong World Industries in 1981 after 34 years of service, after retirement he was employed part-time at the Hamilton Club of Lancaster for 16 years. He was a faithful and active member of Covenant United Methodist Church of Lancaster for 82 years.

A World War II Veteran, he served 3 years in the U.S. Navy in various overseas locations, including the New Hebrides Islands.

He was also an avid Philadelphia Phillies and Eagles fan and supported McCaskey High School sports. Ed will be lovingly missed by his family and friends.

Ed is survived by a son, Dennis P. Wanner of Ronks, a daughter, Bonnie wife of Terry L. Herr of Willow Street, a grandchild, Kelly McElroy of Annville and two great grandchildren.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Edgar's Celebration of Life Memorial Service on Saturday, December 14, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. at Covenant United Methodist Church, 110 North Mulberry Street (corner of West Orange and Mulberry Street) Lancaster, PA with the Reverend Jeffrey A. Snyder officiating. The family will greet friends at the church on Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until time of service.

In lieu of flowers, Memorials in Edgar's name may be made to Covenant United Methodist Church, c/o The Dolly Kepner Music Fund, 110 N. Mulberry Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.

“ Hello Bonnie, Terry and Family,

My sincerest sympathy on the passing of your father. I had the opportunity to work with him when he volunteered at Covenant Church. He was a caring and generous man.

Sincerely,

Ginny Landis
