“ Hi Lucy

I am so sorry to read of your loss. I no longer get the daily paper so I did not know until I saw the name in today's paper. I have no idea what caused me to look, maybe a hint from above. Had I known sooner, I would have come to the service.

I remember Ed fondly from our Quality days at Ham Tech. We were a close department back then, and Ed was an integral part of that closeness. My wife and I moved to a 55+ community in Lititz a little over a year ago. Lots of new friends, but I mourn the loss of all those old friends at Ham Tech.

I pray for the very best for you and your family.

“ Lucy,

I was sorry to hear of Ed's passing. I still remember the times I saw him when he came to the hospital for surgery. The one memory I have is from the first time I met him. He was quick to tell me his joke about "the test results". He was quite funny and gave me a good laugh. It was nice to meet the friends that Jay and Martha often spoke about.

May you cherish the great memories of the wonderful times you shared together.
