

Edward George Haddad

May 7, 2020

Edward George Haddad, 91, of Lancaster, died Thursday, May 7, 2020, at Conestoga View. Edward was the son of the late Anies and Bertha Halout Haddad, immigrants from Syria and Lebanon; and was married to the late Doris Haddad.

One of nine children, Edward was born in Donora, PA; part-owner and salesman of Haddad Shoe Corporation of Lancaster, PA. A passionate lover of horses, he changed his career to be owner/trainer of thoroughbred racehorses. He was kind-hearted and a generous soul. Edward traveled with his nephew, Randy to various racetracks and was even known to sleep in the barn with the horses. His love for his family is evident. He enjoyed fishing with his son, Eddie, his brother, Radar, and friend, Pat; going to the beach with his wife, Doris, and daughters, Susan and Melanie and granddaughter, Kara.

Edward is survived by his son, Edward A. Haddad, his daughter, Susan D. Umberger, stepdaughter, Melanie Meredith, grandchildren; Melissa Meshey, Eddie Haddad, and Kara Viola, great-grandchildren; Kyle, Paige, Abby and Nikolai, great-great-grandchildren; Keiran, Riley, and Connor. He was preceded in death by his brothers; Barket, Eli, and Anies (Radar) Haddad and sisters; Helen Alonzo, Marian (Mitzi) Crotti, Ida Malie, Sophie (Sissy) Paschane, and Renee Haddad.
