

Edward Quinn

February 3, 2025

Edward Quinn, 62, of Perryville, MD, passed away on Monday, February 3, 2025. Born in Philadelphia, PA, he was the son of Denis Charles Quinn, Sr. and the late Barbara Elizabeth Quinn.

Edward attended Oxford Area High School, then entered the workforce as a custom home builder. He later became a custom cabinet fabricator, receiving a certification to specialize in Corian countertops. In the early 1990s, he attended Northwestern Pennsylvania School of Taxidermy and developed talent in the field.

Edward was an avid hunter and outdoorsman. In his free time, he was a beekeeper and enjoyed kayaking.

He will be dearly missed as a simple man—a perfectionist, soft-spoken, kindhearted, and possessing many other traits.

In addition to his father, Denis C. Quinn, he is survived by his daughter, Rachel (Ryan) Armstrong; his three sons, David Quinn, Alan (Kelsey) Quinn, and Andrew Quinn; his brother, Denis C. Quinn, Jr.; his sisters, Barbara Hill and Susan Blevins; his grandson, Maverick Quinn; and his aunt, Lenore Quinn. He is also survived by many other family members. In addition to his mother Barbara, he was preceded in death by his son, Edward R. Quinn.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a memorial contribution in Edward's name to Maryland State Beekeeper Association Inc., MSBA Treasurer c/o Ghezzi 7218 Mamore Creek Drive Easton, MD 21601, or The Johns Hopkins Hospital <https://secure.jhu.edu/form/DoctrDay>.

Interment will be at the convenience of the family.
