“ To the Kreider Family, I had the privilege of knowing Eileen and Jack. I had great respect for both of them. They both worked hard and had great love for their church and their family. I know that each one of you can hold a special place in your heart of their memory. I was out of town at the time of her death so I couldn't be with you. I regret that. Please accept my best wishes and sympathy. Sincerely, Pastor Richard Fehnel

“ On behalf of my Mom Rasma and fiance Vince we would like to express our sympathy to Eileen's family... her 2 sons and daughters-in-law, her 4 grandsons and her great granddaughter. Her family meant a lot to her and we enjoyed listening to her stories. She was an amazing person, an inspiration to all of us who knew her. She was the kindest, sweetest person who always thought about others. We have lost a great friend and neighbor. Rest in peace Eileen, you will never be forgotten. Thanks for the memories!
