I worked with Eileen. I also had a very strong friendship with Ei. We spent Christmases with Ei and Evelyn for several years. Ei visited me in Tn several times. My visits to PA were often spent with Ei. I treasure the times I spent with Ei. I miss her. I am sorry for your loss. Ei I know you are singing in heaven's choir..We will meet again my friend love forever. Pat Rodriguez

*Some years ago, we met Eileen at Lancaster Church. Since we didn't know her, we introduced ourselves. She was such a sweet and lovely friend. Later on, we lost track of her when she moved. Every Christmas we mention her when we put our candy cane on the tree. She made a cover for a candy cane and gifted it to us. May she rest in peace. Our sympathies to you and God Bless!
