

Eli S. Williams

April 23, 2022

Eli S. Williams, 69, of Lancaster, PA, transitioned into glory on Saturday, April 23, 2022. He was the son of the late Theodore Roosevelt Williams, Sr. and Patricia Ann (Hart) Williams.

His schooling with the School District of Lancaster began at Reigart School. He moved on to George Washington Elementary, Edward Hand Jr. High and J.P. McCaskey High School. He was a member of the swim team while attending Edward Hand Jr. High. He enjoyed all the adventures that came with being a Boy Scout (Troop 104). He was on the soccer team at McCaskey and graduated in 1971. He then moved on to attend Millersville University. His time there was shortened due to him being drafted into the United States Air Force where he proudly served.

Moving into the workforce, Eli was a member of the Lancaster City Auxiliary Police Force serving as an accident investigator; a position he thoroughly enjoyed. For the next couple of years, he worked at RCA and then Armstrong World Industries. He found a passion in his final career as a Pennsylvania State Constable. He served the magistrate courts located in the Southeast section of Lancaster. He experienced a sense of fulfillment when his words and actions led to a positive change. He was an active member of the Constable Association.

He leaves behind his wife of 42 years, Janet L. Williams, former SDOL teacher from Morton, PA; an Aunt Mary Bohee; two brothers, Ted and Gregg; a sister, Kim; and a host of children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, in-laws, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A viewing will be held at The Groffs Family Funeral Home, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster on Monday, May 2, 2022, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. A time of remembering will be from 11:30 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. A private graveside burial will be reserved for family. We thank you for your support during this difficult time.

“ Dad,
I can't believe it's only year 2. I've still got forever to go. 🥹

Nothing and no one can fill the hole of you not being here....but Charleston is doing a pretty good job of fulfilling your role as Protector. 🦾

I know you would love ❤️ him as much as I do...and he'd love playtime with you like Stormy I, II, & III. 🐶🐶🐶

Love ❤️ and miss you dearly!!

“ I knew Eli all my life, but in 4th. grade, Mrs. Gensemer’s class at George Washington we were in the same class for the first time. In 6th. grade I was in Mr. Loht’s class, Eli was next door in Mr. Kolher’s class. The classes used to play Spanish baseball against each other. From 7th. grade to high school we were all in the same class. 3 years all the same kids. 7th. 8th. and 9th. grade. Our row was at the end of the alphabet, Vaughn, Waters, Whedbee, West, Williams, Wilson, Wilson, Wise and Wynn. The others in the class were Connie Pickel, Luanne Tangert, Luanne Weiler, Donna Houser, Jane Plauger, Debbie Tome, Chipper Thomas, Charlie Rupp, Ray Eichelberger, Ricky Vatter, Debbie Young, Ann Marie McFadden, Hazel Taltoan, Liz Stokes, Jim Thatcher, and a bunch more at Hand Junior High. On the way to school Eli would run ahead of the group, open a gate and bark at the dog inside, the dog would charge out and chase 20 or 30 of us up onto the neighbors cars and everywhere until the owner came out of the house and retrieved the dog. This happened on a weekly basis. We all learned our multiplication tables in Mr. Bertzfield’s math class. We all took turns pretending we were shooting at the ducks on his 6 inch wide neckties. In 9th grade at Edward Hand, Eli talked me into walking to McCaskey as freshman to join the McCaskey swim team. In 10th. grade Eli talked me into joining the JV soccer team. On the soccer team we hung out with Barry Moffet, Mel Newcomer, Gary Paul’s, Bob Kilp, Ron O’Dell, and a whole bunch of guys from the other 3 junior high schools. This would include Lancaster Township Junior High. Our high school years were filled with a lot of drama and strife. A lot of troubles in the world 1968-1971. We all got through it, thankfully. The civil rights era coming full fold, and protests about poverty and war. Unfortunately the Vietnam war was the next thing some of our class members had to deal with. I don’t know if today’s kids could handle some of the things we had to face. Eli, because of his birthday would have been drafted because of his birthday in the draft lottery, so he enlisted to serve our country. When Eli returned we both found ourselves employed in law enforcement. We remained good friends throughout the years, even snorkeled together on vacation in the Caribbean. He always asked me about our friends from the past. We would compare notes on our classmates. Eli will always be etched in our memories as a person who stood out, always had something good to say, and always wished the best for everyone else. God bless my friend from elementary school. God bless his family. He is in a better place now.
