“ Dear Clayton, Nancy, Brad, Debra and John,

We were so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother, mother in law and sister, Betsy.

My mother Virginia Stehman Ringer is Betsy and John's first cousin. There were many "cousin" get togethers over the years in which we all got to know both of your parents.

I felt so privileged to be part of the Stehman family and learned so much of the past from Betsy.

She was such a gracious, classy, wonderful lady.

She will be so missed by us.

I spoke with Betsy maybe a month ago when she called to talk to Mom at her house. As always, she asked how Mom and I were doing all while she was dealing with her own health issues.

She was always so caring and sweet.

I will always be grateful for the time I got to spend with her and so happy that she and your father became part of my family for the years that we had.

*We send all of you our sympathy, prayers and Love,
Margaret, Kent and Andrew Flinchbaugh*
