You are all in my thoughts and prayers regarding the loss of your sister “Elly” as we used to call her. God bless her children. It was a pleasure knowing her and all of you. “ We all went to Saint Anthony's on Orange Street, years ago. Friendships were started then and grew from there. Lots of good memories, Ann Street, Marshall Street, everyone watched out for each other. She was a good person, beautiful smile. Miss Marion did a wonderful job with all her children. Kind, well mannered, respectful, and helpful to a fault! Positive characteristics instilled in her children. Our prayers are with your family at this time. Ellie was definitely a treasure. Every blessing to you all.
