“ I had the pleasure of spending alot of time at your home back when the days were cool. Even though he sat in his chair didn't talk to much I knew in my heart he was cool. Rick, you and your family are in my prayers, I of all people knows what it is like to lose someone so precious since I lost my husband from cancer back in 2007. I will pray for you and your family. You's will get threw this sunshine.

“ Hello, I just wanted to pass along my condolences. Woody and I grew up on the same street and were friends while in school. Haven't been in touch for a long time but you never forget the friends from long ago. Want you to know that I will be thinking of you and cannot be at the funeral since we now live in Iowa.
