

Erma Miller

December 2, 2021

Erma Miller, 95, passed away on Thursday, December 2, 2021 in Santa Barbara, California, where she resided the last two years. Born in Petosky, Michigan to Alzina and John Brenneman, she was the last of her immediate family.

She was the wife of the late Howard C. Miller, who passed away in 2018. Erma is survived by her children, Lynda McKonly, Ronald (Linda) McKonly, Kathleen (Dean) Kline, Eileen (Steve) Hodgen, and Lisa Gerr; nephew, David (Kathy) Houghton; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She worked at Schick and in the film department at IU13. She also worked as a Hostess at three local restaurants.

She was a faithful member of Abbeyville Road Christian Church where she helped with VBS crafts, church camp, and the seniors' group known as the 4 C's. Erma wrote poems for many different occasions. She had a big heart and was the kind of mom everyone wanted for their own. Her greatest treasures were her children, as she was theirs.

She enjoyed camping, crafts, traveling, and playing board games on Sunday afternoons with family.

“ Erma was a second mom to me in my teens. Lisa and I were "church buddies" back then and I can remember many Sundays begging my parents to let me go home with Erma and Lisa for the afternoon. She was such a kind, generous, and loving soul. I know her family will miss her so much. Thinking of you and yours, Lisa. Sending hugs. I will always remember her as my "other mom".

“ We are sorry to be unable to attend Erma's Memorial service on Monday, but we do remember her kindness and caring for other people. Many years ago she often would be a companion and caregiver for Jerry's children when he would be out of town for work...they came to cherish her as much as she cherished them ! She gave unselfishly of her time when she was needed, and many people have benefited from her love and caring. We send our condolences to her children and their families....thank you for sharing your mother with so many people ! Jerry and Miriam Wachob

“ The world is going to miss a great hugger. Mom was always a hugger. If you did something well, you got a congratulatory hug. If you did something wrong, you got a "I understand" hug. If you were a little sick, you got a soothing, medicinal hug. If you were a little upset, you got a "I got You, Kid" hug. If you are totally upset and really out of control, you got all those hugs in just one hug. And it didn't matter if you were family or not, great hugs were always available. I wish I could get just one more hug...

“ Erma you were the best. A “grandma” in a time of need. You offered solace, comfort and guidance in your times of trouble. Your faith was your guiding light. And your ice tea! I drank countless gallons of it over the years we were connected. You were a blessing at just the right time.

Timothy Nickel - December 08, 2021 at 11:44 AM

Timothy, you were a blessing to Erma! She enjoyed your company and kindness. Thank you so much for attending the service and sharing such an intimate and rich tribute and eulogy. Erma would have really appreciated your words. Much love, Lisa.
