“ To the family of Evelyn,

Grace and blessings to you as you mourn the loss of your mother and grandmother.

Recently Evelyn wrote me a very simple note of encouragement and thanks. It was just a few weeks ago. I meant a lot to me that she would take the time and effort to do that! It was a huge encouragement to me and I saved the note.

That note is now especially precious to me as I realize it was my last communication with her.

She will surely be missed!

“ Evie and were best friends for many years. When we traveled together she would give me a list of what to bring. She touched my life in so many ways. I admired her greatly with her positive attitude. She loved her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. I can picture her smiling and running to Jesus!

“ Family of Evelyn, Evelyn & I spoke just a few weeks ago, I am happy to say.

We managed to enjoy an ongoing friendship after I retired & moved to western NC.

I found Evelyn an inspiring woman, physically and spiritually. I am a better person knowing her.

Her children & grandchildren are precious family to her. She always seemed to know what was going on with each of you. Evelyn used a cell phone better than I ever will.

May she reside in peace with her Lord and Savior. Your memories will be with you always. Treasure them as I will mine.

Peace be with you all.

Respectfully with much love,

“ We were so sorry to hear about Aunt Evie going home, but also so happy for her. She was a delight and inspiration whenever we would see her. The Love of Christ was always evident in her quiet and peaceful demeanor; in spite of the pain she was experiencing. Her life was a model for each of us to follow, as Jesus would have us. We continue to Love you Aunt Evie through all eternity. Bev & Kenn Cathcart

“ My sincere sympathy to you on the loss of Evie. I knew her through widows groups and always appreciated her sweet smile and positive attitude. Her persistence in the midst of her physical challenges was inspiring. She touched many lives, reflecting the love and character of Jesus to all. We will miss her. She is dancing and praising with Jesus in heaven, without any disabilities. Praise God!

May God comfort and strengthen you with His great love, peace and the hope we have in Jesus.

So sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Evie. You were loved by so many. Your strength and grace touched so many family and friends. Our hearts are heavy with grief for your passing.

My mother, Betty Jane, loved her visits to Ohio and enjoyed when we could visit you in Pennsylvania. I know I always enjoyed the Harvey family reunions and visits when ever we could. I know she loved life, her children, Micheal, Sandy and Greg, her siblings and extended family. Aunt Evie always was so proud of her children and of who you become as adults. Our thoughts and prayers are with your children, our cousins, and with Aunt Sally and Uncle Butch for the lost of another sister. You will be missed by all who knew you. Your will live on in our hearts and memories!

All my love to you all , Dot (Dorothy (Karl) Buster)

“Evie was the strongest willed powered woman I ever knew despite her infirmities. She always said I am healed it's just the after effects you see. I am so happy she is free doing cartwheels with the Lord.. She was determined to do whatever she needed to do without ever complaining. We talked to each other almost every single day for the last five months and always ended our conversations with" love you! "I grew to love her so much and will miss her dearly! Jan dorward
