

Fay Lorraine Levy

August 5, 2018

Fay Lorraine Levy, 84, formerly of Beechwood Road, Lancaster, PA, died peacefully at Conestoga View on Sunday, August 5, 2018 after an extended illness. Born in Ephrata, PA, Fay was the widow of Harry Levy and the daughter of the late Edwin George and Edna Cooper Griffith.

Fay graduated from Overbrook School for the Blind in 1955. She developed film for the X Ray department and was a technician for Shelly's Studio from 1960-1966. She was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church and the Musical Arts Society. She also enjoyed knitting, crafts, and collected dolls.

Fay lived a life of faith, determination, and courage.

She is survived by two sisters, Shirley John and Betty, wife of Robert McCarty, all of Lititz, PA, and her sister-in-law Evelyn Griffith. She was preceded in death by her two brothers, Elmer and Ronald Griffith.

A private graveside service will be held at Brownstown Evangelical Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be sent to Westminster Presbyterian Church, 2151 Oregon Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601.

Tribute Wall

“ Fay Lorraine Levy

---

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM