“ Connie and family, we send our deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. I have many happy memories of your mother, and Aunt Elizabeth and Uncle Frank visiting them in Philadelphia, and Dunmore reunions. My sister Fran is in assisted living in Connecticut, she will celebrate her 92nd birthday this month. Would love to keep in touch with you. Sincerely, Betty and Bob Wissler

“ Dear Connie, I am so sorry to hear of your Mother's passing. She and my mother, Esther MacGregor were the original "YaYa Sisterhood", meeting regularly for over fifty years of friendship. I liked the picture in the paper - it's just how I remember her. Maybe they will continue the meetings in heaven. I wish you some comfort and peace, Sincerely, Bonnie
