“ I'm going to miss him. He always made laugh when we worked together back in Manhiem Auto Auction. I would always get him two glazed donuts their were his favorite. He would tell great stories and jokes. He was a big help when I became lane dispatcher and he was my relief dispatcher. We were a pretty good team him and I. We ran Lane 8 together, and would help one another if we had any problems with the dealers. I'm really going to miss him, he was not only a fellow co-worker, he was a friend to know and to work. And I'm going to miss him deeply.
I'll miss buddy,

“ Frank came back into his cousin earl's life after many years. As earl's second wife I never know frank. Meeting him and candy was such a joy. We met each year down by us for a dinner. This year was our time to buy dinner and I am so pissed that he didn't give us the opportunity to buy dinner this year. I looked forward to these visits. What a joy. I wished we could have made more memories. I hope we can make new ones with candy. Treasure the minutes...treasure the memories. Thanks frank for our happy memories.

“ Candy, I am so saddened by Franks passing. My thoughts of Frank are today are on his smile when he would be pushing freight down the docks. He had his own laugh that I can't forget. He was a dedicated Marine.

“ It was a real pleasure (actually a "hoot") serving as a Dispatcher/Lane Leader at Manheim Auto Auction, especially since he had the lane next to mine. We enjoyed hilarious exchanges, encouraging words, and snide comments. Work was more fun because of a joke or hilarious dig/comment in our dispatchers' meeting or in the lunch room. I am deeply sorry for his untimely exit from this earth. Prayers of comfort for the family.
