

George W. DeVerter, Jr.

May 7, 2025

George W. DeVerter, Jr., 78, of Lancaster, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, May 7, 2025. Born and raised in Lancaster, he was the beloved son of the late George W. DeVerter, Sr. and Violet DeVerter (Poole).

A proud 1964 graduate of J.P. McCaskey High School, George dedicated his career to Armstrong World Industries, where he worked as an inspector until his retirement. He was a lifelong member of Christ Lutheran Church, Lancaster and an active participant in the Men of Christ fellowship. In his youth, he was a devoted Boy Scout, a foundation that shaped his values and character.

George had a wide array of interests that brought him joy and comfort. He was an avid fan of science fiction and old Western TV shows, and he had a deep admiration for the music of Michael Jackson. A talented home cook, George was known for his homemade fruit cakes, beef jerky, cherry wine, cookies, and his signature chicken corn soup. He also enjoyed the art of stitchery and found peace in fishing.

He is survived by his loving siblings: Mary Sokolic, Deborah Howell (Lawrence), Violet Renshaw, and Cynthia Kellish. He was a cherished uncle to Joseph Sokolic (Beth), Rachael Sokolic (Jamie Wade), Violet Vanatta (Michael), and Amy Nunnes (Randy), and a special great-uncle to Dezereé

Nunnes, Allison Sokolic, Micayla Vanatta, and Jacob Wade Sokolic.
