

George J. Giansanti Jr.

January 30, 2019

It is with profound sadness that we announce the peaceful, yet unexpected passing of George J. Giansanti, Jr., 70, of Lancaster, PA. George passed surrounded by his loving family on January 30, 2019 at Hospice & Community Care, Mount Joy, PA. Born in Clinton, MA, he was the son of the late George, Sr. and Ann Mastrodomenico Giansanti. He was the husband and soulmate of Martha Giansanti with whom he shared 25 wonderful years.

After graduating from Sacred Heart Academy in Worcester, MA, George proudly served as a Sergeant in the US Air Force during the Vietnam War and later graduated with a bachelor's degree in engineering from California Polytech Institute where he was awarded "Plant Engineer of the Year". He began his technical career in the semiconductor field with Hewlett Packard, Commodore Semiconductor, and later began his entrepreneurial path leading several technology startups. George was a 1996 Delaware Valley Entrepreneur of the Year Finalist; he was a respected and trusted businessman and a mentor. Most recently George served as President of Spectra Analysis Instruments, Inc., Marlboro, MA. He was a CEO Club member of Boston and a former member of St. John the Evangelist Church, Clinton, MA.

George is survived by his stepson, Christopher (Rosalie) Bridi, Mesa, AZ, his stepdaughter, Kimberly Bridi, Martinez, GA, his sister, Barbara A., (Dennis) Prinos, two brothers: Phillip M. (Cyndi) Giansanti and Michael A. Giansanti, all of Clinton, MA, two grandsons: Ryan McDonald and Andrew McDonald, both from Martinez, GA, a granddaughter, Scarlett Bridi, from Mesa, AZ, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and an aunt from Worcester, MA.

George was happiest while in the company of his family. He and Martha loved traveling to visit their families particularly the grandchildren and enjoyed hosting gatherings for family and friends. He was a lifelong enthusiastic fan of the Boston Red Sox and New England Patriots and treasured attending baseball spring training camp with his grandsons. George, an avid golfer, enjoyed the camaraderie and friendly competition of the sport especially with his brothers and nephew.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend George's Mass of a Christian Burial at St. John Neumann Catholic Church, 601 E. Delp Road, Lancaster, PA on Saturday, February 16, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. with The Reverend Steven Arena officiating. The family will receive friends on Friday evening, February 15, 2019 at The Groffs Family Funeral Home, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA from 5:00-7:00 p.m. and again on Saturday at the church from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service.

Memorial contributions in George's name may be made to Ann B. Barshinger Cancer Institute Fund, Lancaster General Health Foundation, 609 N. Cherry Street, Lancaster, PA 17603 or Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center, 750 E. Pratt Street, 17th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202 in memory of George J. Giansanti, Jr.

“ Dear Martha and Family,

Words can not express how deeply saddened I am for your loss. George was such a wonderful man and incredible person. Take comfort in knowing that he was loved by many. George is resting peacefully in the arms of God, and you will be reunited with him one day in Heaven.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

*Much love,
Dee and Family*

“ I assisted George and Martha on their relocation to Lancaster from the Boston area. They were delightful to work with and I will always consider them friends. I was so saddened and very surprised to learn of George's challenges and his passing. George was a very gentle spirit. He was soft spoken and had a wonderful sense of humor. I will always remember the commitment that he and his brothers made to the care of his Mom. He was very accomplished in his career and remain very grounded. I know that he will be terribly missed by Martha and his family. Dave and I want to extend our heart felt sympathy to Martha and the entire family on George's passing.

“ I was very sorry to see the notice of George's passing in the Boston Globe. During the time I spent with him on the board of GMT and when he was involved with Micro Networks, I knew a quiet but forceful man and a true gentleman. My condolences to Martha and the entire family. Sincerely, Allan Campbell, former GMT director and friend
