

George W. Kitch

December 27, 2018

George W. Kitch, 82, of Elizabethtown, PA passed away on Thursday, December 27, 2018 at The Masonic Village in Elizabethtown. He was born in Columbia, PA, the son of the late George H. and Catherine (Rissinger) Kitch. His wife, Mary Ann (Brenneman) Kitch died in 2006.

George served in the US Navy Reserves, he was a Master Carpenter, his business was Kitchens by Kitch. He collected black powder guns, loved power boating, he was always on the Susquehanna River, and a founding member of the "Mud Island Yacht Club".

Surviving are his daughters, Georgiann married to Michael Moser, Loriann married to John Lafond and Wendisue married to Michael Matyas, six grandchildren, and one great grandchild expected in February.

Private funeral services will be at the convenience of the family.

Donations in George's name can be made to Columbia Education Foundation, P.O. Box 548, Columbia, PA 17512 (Please put George Kitch in the memo line on the check).

Tribute Wall

“ George W. Kitch

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM