“ I will always remember Elvin & I working with your dad. What a gentle and kind man! So sorry for your loss. But he's in a better place now. Probably he & Elvin are up there talking shop now. 😊 Please know that you're all in my prayers.

“ There has not been an hour since Saturday that I have not wished the phone would ring one more time so I could here that traditional greeting of " Hi son, this is your pappy, and I just called to say I love ya".... and as soon as I get better I'm coming home home. I love you so much Pop. Give Mom a big hug and a kiss for me. Enjoy a beautiful birthday in heaven, you finally have that gift of eternal life, along with that reunion with mom you have been waiting to have for 30 years.
Love ya Pop.

“ One of my fondest memories was at Christmas time, Uncle Earl would have Christmas music on a tape recorder and he would connect the recorder to two speakers and play the Christmas music out from the house when the decorations were lit. Rest in Peace Uncle Earl. Love, Terry and Eric.

Uncle Earl, thank you for always greeting me with warm handshake and a completely accepting and welcoming demeanor. You truly made me feel like a part of Terry's family.
