“ Uncle Raymond's beautiful gift of our wedding announcement w/ silks in an antique gold frame, as well as the mounted/framed wedding picture of Nanny & Pappy for our 25th was so thoughtful. I recall Mithre telling me how she & Raymond danced together when they were kids, living across from each other. He kindly took a disabled chick from my special ed student teaching teacher's classroom b/c she was going to kill it, & I asked him to please take it since I wasn't able to. He said yes. His funny stories, which led to many laughs, was enjoyed @ gatherings. I also remember entertaining Lisa w/ magic tricks & games while Uncle Raymond helped Dad dig out our basement. Dad later helped Uncle Raymond w/ the construction of your basement.

The memorial service was simple and very meaningful to attendees. A special thanks to Daniel's friend, I think Greg, who broke the ice by speaking 1st w/ gracious memories of Uncle Raymond. As w/ 100% plus @ his job, he did so for all of you.

May such memories fill you w/ peace and comfort, as he now resides on a spiritual plane w/ the Terry Family.

“ Dear Flora, Lisa and Dan - I am Dan Marshall's mother, a friend of Dan's from Brecht School and beyond. I fondly remember sharing many soccer and basketball games with George and Flora. George was always a great conversationalist and interested in all of Dan's friends, including my Dan. Mr. Terry, what I always called him, was friendly, kind and caring. Mr. Terry volunteered his time at Brecht school and supported all the various events. I can only imagine the difficulty Mr. Terry experienced dealing with Parkinson's. I was sorry to read about that. You lost a good man. May God provide you with strength and courage as you move forward on earth without George. May you seek God who will provide you with comfort, peace and the true hope that He only can give.
Sincerely - Nancy Marshall
