“ I too grew up on Cabbage Hill growing up at 552 West Vine St. at the corner West Vine and Dorwart. My father George Kolb was on the Board of Directors of Saint Joe Club. I got to know Mr. Weber from Church and with him coaching the Saint Joe B Team football team. I also helped coach the Saint Joe A Team from 1972-1976 with John Bisking. Mr. Weber was a good man, a great guy, and someone to look up too. Mr. Weber really bonded with the players he coached for sure. I even had the chance to play some basketball with him up at the Hall and he was a really good player. Since I left Lancaster in 1977 I lost contact with pretty much everything going on at Saint Joe and the Hill. I always said growing up on the Hill when I did was the greatest experience of my life. It was a great place to live. And one of those reasons was the people of the Hill. And George Weber would be at the top of my list. I had my brother Steve inform me of George's death. He lives in Florida but he saw of his passing and knew I would want to know. My prayers are with you all.

“ Dear Jo and family,

I wish to express my sincere sympathy to you regarding George's passing. I clearly recall that he was always so very kind and friendly to me when I visited your house on St. Joseph Street to discuss genealogy. Hard to believe so many years have gone by since that time. May you find comfort and support in those that surround you, and in the memories you carry in your mind and in your heart.

Sincerely, Debbie Neiss

“ I remember George fondly. George and I long ago played touch football against my two brothers, Lewis and Carl Fruchtl in the 600 block of St. Joseph Street. Also, when we boys went down to pond field to play baseball against the bigger guys, the big guys said "no" they did not want me on their team. However, George stuck up for me and said that I should play - so I did! --- Vincent Fruchtl.

“ Dear Joanne and family,

It is with great sadness that we learn of the passing of George. Such memories of growing up on St. Joseph St- many stories to tell. A great companion when young and a fine man and family man as he grew older. The smile we see here in George's photo is so typical of him. It was always his family that brought that smile to him- from his parents Emma and Al; then his siblings; his dear Joanne; his kids and grandkids, you all brought him joy. We hope that the memories are plentiful and will sustain you in these difficult days. George will be missed; but he will be remembered with great fondness.

*With sympathy and love,
