

Gerald L. Book

June 12, 2015

Gerald L. Book, 79, of Lancaster, passed away on June 9, 2015 at the Lancaster General Hospital following a short illness. Born in Lancaster County, and a lifelong area resident, he was the son of the late Leon and Cora Frankford Book. Gerald was the husband of Norma Clark Book, together they would have celebrated their 59th anniversary on June 23, 2015.

Gerald had worked for many years as a truck driver; first with Penn Supreme and Mushroom Freight and lastly for 35 years at Yellow Freight. He was a member of the Teamsters Union for over 40 years, having served as a Union Steward. He was an avid Sprint Car Racing fan and enjoyed many years of hunting.

Gerald will be lovingly remembered by his wife, Norma, his sons; Gerald G., (Cheryl A.) Book of Narvon and Robert E., (Melodee A.) Book of Ephrata, his three grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his two sisters and four brothers.

Private family services.

“ *To Jerry, & Bob, With great sadness and sorrow I seen in the LNP the passing of your Father. Even only meeting him once was enough for me to send this message. And reassure you both he left this earth knowing his job of bring up two Boys into Men was complete. The times you spent with your Dad will never be forgotten. And he will live on within both of you. “ *Aunt Norma, Gerry and Family, and Bob and Family, With deepest sympathy for your loss. Every memory and every tear, is a celebration of a life well live, and a friend well loved. I will miss Uncle Jerry's jokes, being Aunt Norma's answering service and his (and Aunt Norma) always being willing to help me. RIP Uncle Jerry I am sure you are telling jokes to George in heaven.
