

Gladys Margarito Negron

May 16, 2019

Gladys Margarito passed away on Thursday, May 16, 2019. She was born on April 1, 1955 in New York, New York to Secundino Margarito and Carmen Margarito. Both preceded her in death. She was the first child of four children. She married the love of her life, Eusebio Negron and from their union three beautiful girls were born.

She received her education in New York Public Schools and graduated from Sarah J. Hale High School in 1974. She attended night classes at bible college after graduation and worked in the family store, Apollo. She graduated from Lancaster Bible College with a certificate in Counseling. In 1993, she and her husband decided to move their family to Pennsylvania to provide a better life for them and a better education for their children.

Gladys home schooled her first two girls at Corner Stone Home School from 1994-1996. She was truly a Proverbs 31 woman! Gladys loved the Lord with all her might! She received Him as her Lord and personal Savior at an early age. Gladys witnessed her mother's lifestyle of holiness and intercession growing up. Her example helped Gladys to understand the importance and the power of prayer. As a result, the Lord birthed the ministry of prayer and intercession in Gladys. Gladys would intercede for many people as the Lord revealed them to her no matter what time of day. The Lord equipped her to understand that spiritual warfare was real and gave her suitable weapons to fight. Gladys touched the lives of many people. She believed in keeping the Gospel simple so that people could understand. She would witness and minister to people at their understanding without watering down the message.

She had a love for books of all kinds and volunteered at her local library. She was a wonderful mother! She enjoyed life and was very fun-loving. She loved spending time with her daughters and grandkids! She knew how to make each of her children feel special with individual Mommy/Grandmom time.

She is survived by her husband, Eusebio Negron. Three daughters, Hannah Smith of Pennsylvania (Warren), Sharon-Ann Negron of Pennsylvania, Mary-Beth Negron of Pennsylvania (Fiancé', Joe Sturgill) Grandkids, Shawna, Ezekiel and Baby Sturgill. Two sisters, Diana Margarito of Pennsylvania and Kere Rivera of Pennsylvania, One brother, Paul Margarito of Puerto Rico (Maritza). She also leaves a host of nieces, great nieces and great nephews. A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, May 20th, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. at Columbia Christian Fellowship, 1290 A prospect Road, Columbia, PA 17512. Friends are welcome to greet the family at 6:00 p.m. at the church until the time of service.

“ Gladys was a prophetic intercessor and shared often with me. She loved our Lord so incredibly much and truly was an inspiration to me. I didn't find out about her passing until after the service and am truly sorry that I missed it.
I am remembering the family in prayer. Your wife and mother and grandmother was a woman of God and loved to share about Him with everyone. I am grateful to have known her and call her friend.
Love you all. Yvonne Zeiset

“ What an inspiration for my walk as a Christian! All of us at the library appreciated all that Gladys did. Her daughter Sharon works here now! The Negron ladies love their books - and , most importantly, they love the Lord first!!
