“ I have known Aunt Tiny since I was adopted to her neighbor Dawn and Dick Cummings' family on the street behind her Nursery Lane home in 1975. Aunt Tiny and my mother were close and maintained contact even after we moved out of the Lancaster area. Whenever I was in the area, I would look forward to visit to see Aunt Tiny's warm smile. I have attached a few pictures from the years including a picture of Aunt Tiny and Uncle Rolly with me at the York Court house when I became a citizen in 1981.

Aunt Tiny will be remembered and missed.

“ Prayers from Terry and Zoa Kile--Mrs. Subers was my second mom when Randy and I were growing up in Manor Ridge. She was a wonderful person who put up with a lot from us.

Take Care all:

Terry
