“ Joyce

I was so saddened this afternoon when I heard the news. So many hopes and dreams, I know, have been shattered. It has been too many years since I've talked to you. Know that many people are keeping you in their thoughts and prayers. Feel free to reach out to them and to lean on them. I know how strong you are and that your faith and your family will help you through this time. And, I can tell from the comments that Greg was a very special man. He will be greatly missed.

“ To the Taylor family:

You are in our prayers and thoughts on the passing of Greg. I enjoyed the many years that I knew Greg from Denlingers where I was the insurance broker. We had a lot in common since we grew up in the same era and served our country. Greg was a true gentleman and I enjoyed his company when we saw each other in recent years and was shocked when I saw his passing in the paper. We lost a good man who is now in Heaven.

“ I was saddened to hear of Greg's passing. Although I hadn't seen him in some time I still considered him to be a good friend. I will never forget his infectious laugh. Memories of time spent working together at Denlinger's, building the back porch, fishing, and watching boxing will remain with me. He was a cool guy. Best,

“Joyce & Andre allow me to offer you my deepest sympathy. I wish I knew just what to say to make things easy for you. Life can be so hard sometimes. May you be comforted by the many warm thoughts and memories Greg has left you. God does not send us more than we can bear. Your heart will mend if you keep God with you.

Just keep the memories in your heart forever that you and Greg share. He was a friend and neighbor I liked from the first day we met. Thank God for sharing your beautiful life with Greg. God put the two of you together.

Take care. Remember, I am only a few steps away if you need anything, EVEN PICKING UP YOUR LEAVES. ha ha ha

“ I was shocked to read in this morning's paper of Greg's death. Greg was my immediate boss/supervisor back in the mid 1980's when I worked for what was then, Denlinger Lumber. I just want you to know that he was, by far, the best boss I ever had! It was an honor to know Greg. My heart goes out to you all during this difficult time. May you feel God's presence in a very special way. God Bless you.
