

H. Dwight Steller

August 7, 2015

Harold Dwight Steller, 49, of Manheim Township went home to be with the Lord in a fall on Thursday, August 6, 2015 in Lancaster, PA. Born in Lancaster, December 6, 1965, he was the son of Joan M. Steller and the late Harold R. Steller.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his sisters: Letitia S. Eaves, Elizabethtown and Dorohty S. Artz, wife of Timothy J. Artz of Oakton, Virginia; one nephew, Benjamin Artz and one aunt, Pauline S. Smith, Lancaster; and two cousins: James and Jennifer Smith, Lancaster.

Dwight graduated from Manheim Township High School, Class of 1984 and was a sharp shooter on the Rifle Team. He was active in the music department and played trumpet in marching band and orchestra. He enjoyed camping, fishing, yard work and taking care of his beloved dog, Rosie. He was a member of the Lancaster Church of the Brethren where he sang in the choir and attended Wednesday prayer breakfast. He was employed for 18 years as a car salesman and most recently by the MACK employment agency.

He was preceded in death by his father and maternal grandparents, William J. and Dorothy W. Martin, his paternal grandparents, Robert L. and Margaret E. Steller, his Aunt Peg Martin and his Uncle Charlie Smith.

A Funeral service will take place from the Lancaster Church of the Brethren, 1601 Sunset Avenue, Lancaster, PA on Wednesday, August 12, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. with a viewing one hour prior to the service.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Lancaster Church of the Brethren, 1601 Sunset Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17601.

“ Dear Joan,

I was so sorry to hear of Dwight's death. I recently lost my sister and I know how difficult it is to lose someone you love. I am sorry I am not able to attend his service as I am working. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I have known Dwight for many years going back to when we met working at the same car dealership and being reunited at his most recent employment. He was smart and funny and absolutely the best salesman the dealership ever had. He always left us smiling. He will be missed.

“ Dwight is sadly missed. Prayers to the family and friends. I will have to find a new friend to fish with but none will ever compare to Dwight.

“ Joan and family, I want to offer you my sincere condolences over Dwight's death. I came to care very much for Dwight over the past several years. I will miss him deeply.

I plan to rejoin the choir for Dwight's service, and since I will be rehearsing with the choir, my wife, Mary, will represent me at the viewing. I will see you after the service. Lots of love, Jay.
