“Harriet and her family had previously attended the Lynch reunion, held in Needmore, PA, for many years. It was always good to renew friendships in those annual events. That , like so many other things of fond memories, have fallen by the wayside. Nevertheless, we are sorry to learn of Harriet's home going, but rejoice she is now with family members and friends who have made the journey. Condolences to the family, with prayers to help sustain you during this difficult time.
