

Harry "Bill" Baldwin

October 22, 2010

Harry W. "Bill" Baldwin, 93, of Lancaster, PA died Wednesday, October 20, 2010 at Brethren Village, where he was a resident. Born in Lancaster, Harry was the husband of the late Dorothy K. Lantz Baldwin and the son of the late Ira J. and Louisa Mae Forry Baldwin

A graduate of Lancaster Boys High School, he retired from Commonwealth National Bank (Citizen's Bank) as Assistant Vice President in small business loans.

Harry served during World War II with the US Army Military Police and was stationed in New Jersey.

Harry was a member of the Covenant United Methodist Church, Lancaster, PA.

Harry was an avid hunter and fisherman.

He is survived by a son, David H., husband of Nelly Carrasquillo Baldwin of Lancaster; daughters, Nancy M. Baldwin, wife of Rex W. Turner, of Augusta, KS and Kathryn J. Baldwin Grove of Washington Boro, PA. Also surviving are nine grandchildren, six great grandchildren and a sister, Betty, of York, PA. He was predeceased by brothers, Dr. Russell Baldwin, Robert J. Baldwin and a sister, Geraldine Earhart

Relative and friends are invited to attend Harry's Celebration of Life Service from Covenant United Methodist Church, 110 N Mulberry Street (corner of W Orange and Mulberry) on Saturday, October 23, 2010 at 2:00 pm. Friends may call at the church on Saturday from 1:00pm until time of service. Interment will follow in the Millersville Mennonite Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Harry "Bill" Baldwin

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM