“ pop shared his wisdom and kind hearted soul with all of those who would listen, growing up he taught me many lessons about many things that ill never forget, and will pass to my child as well who also will miss playing cars, reading with, and sitting on his pops lap... He made me believe in hope, perseverance, love, faith, and that he knew I was tough. He had more faith in me than I had in myself, and I know that he's looking down on all of those whose hearts were effected by his personality, those who seen how truly selfless and kind he was... I know he's with all of those he played at the golf course with as well, it was always one of his truly favorite places besides in his own back yard. I know that a piece of him will always be somewhere with a golf club. Gramma and Dad, Carter and I love you so very much. You are always in our thoughts and hearts, we miss and think if you everyday.
