“ I don't know of anyone whose "bad" piano playing I enjoyed more and whose broad smile and joie de vivre were so contagious. Helen, I will miss you... for a while, but probably not all that long. God has plans for us both. Mac Wigfield, and for Marlise too.

“ I remember Helen wearing a red clown nose and playing On Top of Old Smokey with her fingers on the wrong keys and smiling and singing at the beginning of a Bolosse business meeting. So much fun and so rich a lady she was. Rest in peace, Helen if you can stop laughing up there.

“ We were saddened to hear that the Lord called dear Helen to Heaven, but we rejoice with you that she is with the Lord, whom she loved and served and that she has been released from her earthly, failing body.

I (Judy) think I recall when she and John left for Haiti. I feel as though I have known them all of my life.

I really enjoyed getting to know Helen better after she and John retired at Calvary Homes. I enjoyed serving with her in the Women Praying for the World group. I recall her opening up her home for meetings of the prayer group leaders. She was a gracious hostess.

I missed her when she was no longer able to get out, but we rejoice that we will one day see her again and will be together for all eternity.

*Our love and prayers to John, Ginger, and Jim and their families,
Judy and Karl Spaugh*
