

Helen M. Heisler

February 4, 2018

Helen M. Heisler, 86, of Willow Street passed away following a brief illness on Sunday, February 4, 2018 at Pleasant View in Manheim. In August of 1951 she married George T. Heisler, Jr. who passed away on January 1, 2017. Born and raised in Strasburg, she was the daughter of the late Harry W. Maser, Sr. and the late Annie C. (Wood) Maser.

She was a graduate of JP McCaskey High School. Helen retired from Kellogg's as a Tow Motor Operator and had previously worked at Hamilton Watch Company. She was a member of Hempfield United Methodist Church. She enjoyed traveling, camping, and spending time with her great-grandsons.

She is survived by a daughter, Kathleen D. Heisler; two sisters, Anna Mary Dearolf and Jean Heidig; two grandchildren, Tiffany L. Lipsky and Todd C. Horrex; and two great-grandsons, Gavin and Torrin.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in her memory may be made to the American Cancer Society, 314 Good Dr., Lancaster, PA 17603.

Tribute Wall

“ Helen M. Heisler

---

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Love and miss you aunt Helen a lot of fun times at your Christmas party. Nice visits when you would stay at moms trailer. Love ya

---

Deb Kilby niece - February 13, 2018 at 07:34 PM

“ I enjoyed working with Helen at Kellogg's and she often talked about her family. It was evident how much she cared about her family.

Tanya West

---

Tanya H West - February 13, 2018 at 09:43 AM