“ Dear Family,

You are in my thoughts and prayers. As a person who grew up on Green Street, I have fond memories of sitting on the porch at 417 Green and watching Ms. Helen come around the corner at S. Duke onto Green St after work. She always seemed to be carrying a book or two. Ms. Helen would always say hello and keep it moving. In later years, she would often stop to have conversations with Mazie. She truly was a kind woman, a good neighbor and woman who loved the Lord.

I regret not being able to offer my condolences in person, but please know you are close in heart as you mourn the loss of Ms. Helen.

With sympathy,

L. Becky Corbin Powell
