September 7, 2016

Hiram M. “ Little Hiram” Calderon, beloved son of Hiram and Maria Torres Calderon, loving brother of Olivia M. and Kyle R. Grant, left this earth too soon on September 7, 2016.

Born in Hershey, PA, he was the grandson of Damaris “Dee” Calderon, Mt. Joy, Hiram Calderon, Sr., Phoenix, AZ, Virginia Vargas, Stevens, PA, and Angel L. Torres, Sr., Egg Harbor, New Jersey. “ To my humble, loving, caring, Grandson that God blessed me with for 20 years. You have given me many wonderful memories to hold in my heart and mind. You will forever be in my heart and never be forgotten. I love you and will remember how you impacted the lives of so many. They all came to say good bye. They shared so many wonderful memories of you. You would have been proud. You are one of a kind! Now you are in God's hands until we see you again. This light is for the light you shown upon so many. My love for you always. GRANDMA...

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of this young man. It is always difficult to lose a loved one and I know that your grief must be overwhelming. I do hope that you are able to find some comfort in the caring thoughts and expressions of your friends and family. May you also find comfort in the assurance that " God is near to those who are broken hearted and crushed in spirit" (Psalms 34:18). He is able to give you the strength necessary to endure this difficult time. Please accept my sincere condolences. L. Morgans

“ I remember when i first met him at Lancaster country CTC Brownstown and hugging him. Remembering all the times we talked over the phone and how joyful he was. He was the greatest best friend I had he always made sure to make me and his other friends and family happy. He would always ask how I was doing and he always made sure to ask if i was happy, and I always said yes I'am, and he would always laugh on the phone and say good. He was a very caring and friendly friend to be around. I will always miss him and his funny sense of humor and his caring personality fly high I was truly sad when I heard about your passing. Hiram you will be missed and in our hearts forever. To Hiram's family you are all in my thoughts and prayers I'm so sorry for your loss may your son rest in peace. Your best friend Tiera.
