“ Dear Jon, Coni and Chris,

Know that my prayers and thoughts are with you during this tremendous loss. My family and I are just devastated and can't imagine a world without Ingrid. She was such a special person and I feel so blessed to have grown up with her care, humor, zest for life and influence. My first travel out of the country to Austria was because of Ingrid - so I really owe my love of travel and other cultures as well as so many other things to her. Know that she is greatly missed and that you are all family to the Manix clan.

Love always, Mary Manix

“ Dear Jon, Constance and Christian,

We we so very saddened to hear of Ingrid's death and shall pray for all of you through this extremely difficult and heartbreaking time. We shall never forget our very fond memories of times spent with Ingrid, whether Utica, Naples, Old Forge, or here in Rome playing golf at Teugega. Most memorable for me (Jim) was during a time while playing poker at Bill and Linda's camp one New Year's Eve and suffice it to say, she was not winning and I was. During some back and forth banter, Ingrid made reference to another player who had just won by affectionally referring to him as a part of our anatomy combined with a word normally referencing an aperture in the ground, in the most beautiful Austrian accent I have ever heard. It made my night! We shall always remember the fun and easiness of being in her presence. Our Deepest Sympathy to all of your family. Sincerely, Jim & Carol.

“ Dear Jon, Chris, Coni and family.

The world is a bit dimmer without the twinkle in Ingrid's eye and sparkle in her laugh. Not only was she full of fun, she was warm, understanding and wise.

Michele*

“ I met Ingrid in the Austrian Alps, while with her to be husband, Jon. The year would have been 1963 or 1964. Since then, with infrequent contact, I've enjoyed Ingrid's straight forward, put it out there, communications. One never knew what would come out of her lips and it kept those of us who knew her on our toes. She was perfect for keeping Jon under harness.

“ Dear John and Family,

We were saddened to hear of Ingrid's passing. The Lord has called one of His children home. May He give you comfort and strength to endure this loss.

We will always remember the grand parties you gave on Wheatlad Avenue and her zest for life ,her candor and sense of humor.

May God rest her precious soul and may her memory be eternal and everlasting.

Your memories will keep Ingrid with you in all your tomorrows.

“ To Mr. Tryon, Chris, Coni & family -

I am so saddened to have opened the paper this morning to find your wife's/mother's obituary. She absolutely was vivacious and such a beautiful woman inside and out. I have and will always cherish the matter-of-fact advice and compliments she had given me as well as her many stories. And who could forget her sitting on the couch in her robe watching Days of Our Lives (with Chris -haha) smoking a cigarette with the wine nearby.

God bless.
