“ When Irene worked for my husband and I in the 80's, we appreciated her so much. One time when we went on a family vacation, she watched our dog, Spunky, taking him home in the evenings.

While we were away, a big snow storm came and Irene was worried that she wouldn't be able to get to the house during it, so she went to pick Barry up with two days worth of clothes, and she stayed at the house with Spunky until the storm passed.

She was so kind and conscientious, and we wish you all our deepest sympathies.
