

James David Seyfried, Sr.

April 22, 2020

James David Seyfried, Sr., born in April of 1937, passed away peacefully to be with Jesus on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, at Conestoga View Nursing Home in Lancaster. He is survived by his son, James David Seyfried, Jr., who was his best friend.

Jim originated in Nazareth Pennsylvania, moved around Pennsylvania somewhat throughout his life, and moved to Lancaster with his son, Dave in 1998.

Jim had retired from the state of Pennsylvania, served in the army, was an excellent artist and singer, and was an amazing father.

His memorial service will be held for his friends and family at West End Mennonite Fellowship in Lancaster once quarantine restrictions have been lifted. He is to be laid to rest in Pen Argyl, Pennsylvania next to his loving wife, Roma-Mary.

Note: Jim would like you to know that he is enjoying his physical transformation in heaven and is fulfilled with his loving wife Roma Mary Seyfried.
