

Jan Diener Brown

July 28, 2017

Jan Diener Brown, 76, of Manheim, PA, passed away on Friday, July 28, 2017 at Hamilton Arms Nursing Center in Lancaster, PA. She was born in West Reading, PA, the daughter of Karl M. and H. Chaldea(Hager) Diener.

Jan graduated from William Penn High School in York and had a career as a graphic designer for many years, working for a time at the PA Department of Education before starting her own graphic design business. She had many creative interests, including renovating houses, designing and planting gardens, and beading jewelry; she brought beauty and flair to everything she touched. She also loved and cared for many cats over her lifetime, and no stray ever went unfed at her home.

She is survived by her husband, George D. Brown, Jr. as well as two children from a previous marriage, Melissa A. Shauland her husband, Jeffrey Lotlikar of Severna Park, MD and Michael E. Shaul of Harrisburg; a stepson, George D. Brown, III and his wife Janet of Simi Valley, CA; grandchildren, Sarah and Rachel Lotlikar and stepgrandchildren Madison, Hayden, Mckenna and Riley Brown. Also sisters Karen D. Best of Mechanicsburg, Lynn D. Steele of Indian Springs, OH, and brother Karl M. Diener, Jr. of Grosse Ile, MI.

A private memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Paws of PA, P.O. Box 855, Camp Hill, PA

17001; www.pawsofpa.org.

Tribute Wall

“ Jan Diener Brown

---

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM