“ Jane and I were in nursing school together. She was the most real and honest person, but also one to lift our spirits with her unique sense of humor. She will be greatly missed by the LGH class of '65.

“ I remember many crazy nights in the OR with Jane when the trauma rolled in from the ER. In less busy times chatting about her time at Jefferson and JY Templeton, and also hearing what her daughters were up to. She was a wonderful lady.

“ Jane loved me and took care of me as if I was one of her own daughters and for that I'll be eternally grateful. Jane, your joyful spirit will live on in all of those you touched so deeply while you were here on earth. Now it's your time to revel in all your heavenly glory. God be with you and I'll love you always. -Alison
