“ I was going to say thaks to the Mueller family when I just pubhslied an article owing to the Mueller Travel Award I received in 2012. Then I found the obituary online. My condolences goes to the family. Thank you for supporting a young scholar many years ago.

I was thinking about sharing the article with Mr. and Mrs. Mueller, because I remember how they said it was such a well-thought project... so sad it's a bit late now. Thank you so much.

“ My sincere condolences. As long as I can remember being involved at the Fulton Theatre I remember Mrs. Mueller being a part of it. She and my mother, Mary Underhill, served on the board together as well as volunteering there. My mother passed away in May and now I imagine the two of them are busy organizing whatever theater endeavors exist in the great beyond.

“ I first met Jane at a conference for non-profit theatres. As fate would have it, I ended up moving from New Jersey to Lancaster in 1984. Jane welcomed me to get involved with the Fulton. Soon, I was the Executive Director there for 17 years. Jane was always supportive of me through the many years we worked together - she as a Board Member and then as a volunteer through the years. Among my favorite memories of Jane was her bringing us the rubber bands she had saved from the mail carrier, so we didn't have to buy them to send out bulk mail. When I left the Fulton in 2003 she "gifted" me with rubber bands, old crossed out envelopes of Paul's years as a judge, used LCC golf pencils and on and on. I'm sure she is organizing something of great importance in heaven as I send this. She was a force and her feisty spirit will be missed here on this earth. What a woman!

“ I will never forget Jane's passion, energy, tenacity and verve. She was a star volunteer when I arrived at the Fulton Opera House in 1983. She and Paul welcomed us to Lancaster and to the Fulton with generosity and grace. Jane's is certainly a life well lived. My deep sympathy to Jane's family. I suspect that Jane is organizing things in heaven.

Sincerely,

I was thinking the same thing! My husband Alan and I worked at the Fulton with Kathleen and long after. I had the pleasure of working closely with Jane throughout the capital campaign. She was a force to be reckoned with and one of the strongest women I've ever met. Whip 'em into shape up there Jane!

“ I'm thinking of all the marvelous play times at the Mueller house when I was a girl and the Muellers' generosity to me when my parents passed away. Mrs. Mueller is such a loss to the community, too. I will miss her smile as well as the way she said my name.

Sending Mr. Mueller, Cathy, Anne, Elizabeth, and all the family heartfelt comfort.

I first met the Mueller family as a young girl of 11 or so with a strong southern accent and aware that things were different here in the North. Mrs. Mueller will forever be the kind face and voice who helped us navigate those early years. My thoughts and prayers are with Judge Mueller, Anne, Cathy, and Liz whom I have not seen for many years.
