“ We had so much fun as kids! I was her cousin that only got to see her and Trish and Jean a few times a year, but in the summer when my sister and I could spend more time, it was great! Janie was such the life of the party! Always laughing! I remember having a cassette recorder in the camper parked beside the house...tweens saying stupid, crazy stuff that made us laugh when we played it back. Time gets away from us; so much happens and before we know, those we love are gone. I remember Janie as a loving, caring and vivacious girl! And although she has been through so much, her loving spirit has always shown through. I truly believe that she is now in the hands of the Lord, in a place that her suffering has ended. Love you!

“ Brian, Trish & Betty,
So sorry to hear of Jane's passing. What a vibrant, beautiful, person she was. I met you guys years ago at Willow Valley. You couldn't help but have fun with Jane. Her wicked humor & pranks she pulled with a straight face...there was lots of laughter. Her love for her family was evident, her love of animals is all over your restaurant. It's amazing how 1 person can affect so many lives. Find comfort in that as you grieve. My heart aches for you.

“ Brian, my heartfelt sorrow, for your lose. Jane was a truly wonderful, loving, and caring person. I first met Jane, and you, when your - Sloppy Jane's - restaurant, was opened at the Stone Mill Plaza, many years ago. She was the first to greet the customers, with her beautiful smile, just like the one, in the photo. Again, my true sympathy.

My sincere condolences to you and your family, Brian. I've known you two for 20 years back when you two started at stone mill shopping center. Jane was the sweetest. She should always let my daughter Trish feed the fishes. She'll be missed for sure.

“ So sorry to see that Jane has passed. Although I am glad that her suffering is over and that she is at peace. I was one of your first customers and I remember well Jane's smile and enthusiasm about the business and her husband!

I especially remember the rivalry between them i.e. the macaroni salad and the potato salad!! What great fun they had together. I wish you peace as you go forward in your healing and joy in knowing that you had Jane for as long as you did! Katherine Swisher
