

Janet L. Kaseman

December 4, 2015

Janet L. Kaseman, 94, of Lancaster, PA passed away at Magnolias of Lancaster on Tuesday, December 2, 2015. She was born in Millersville, PA, the daughter of the late Benjamin Herr Warfel and Elvina Bowers Warfel. She was the widow of Paul W. Kaseman who passed away on December 11, 2009.

Janet was a member of Calvary Church in Lancaster where she attended the "Word of Life" Adult Bible Class and served on the social committee. She was a graduate from Penn Manor Class of 1940. She worked as a tube builder at RCA and later had her own dog grooming business in her home for 20 years. She and her husband (deceased) celebrated 50 years of marriage on June 12, 2004. She was a wonderful mother and loving grandmother, housewife and cook. She and her husband loved hosting dinner parties in their home. Janet was known for making delicious "Shoo-Fly-Pies" of which she would give to neighbors and friends at Christmastime.

Surviving are her children, Paul W. Kasemen, Jr., J. Lucinda married to Jose Santiago, and Ann L. Bushong all of Lancaster. Also surviving is her granddaughter Logan Santiago, step grandchildren Jason and Brandon Santiago, and her brother Benjamin H. Warfel married to Marion of Lancaster.

Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral service on Tuesday, December 8, 2015 from the Groffs Family Funeral Service, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster PA 17603 (on the corner of W. Orange and Pine Streets) at 2:00 p.m. A viewing will be at the funeral home on Tuesday from 1-2:00 PM. Burial will be in Millersville Mennonite Cemetery. Donations in Janet's name may be sent to Grane Hospice, 3501 Concord St., Ste 110, York PA 17402.

“ *Ann Louise, Paul, Lucinda and family,
We were sorry that we could not make the funeral for Aunt Janet.
We followed her journey until the end on the Facebook posts and were grateful for those. So glad she is at peace now. Prayers for all of you this holiday season.*
