“ Dear Lisa and Patterson Family,

I was saddened to see the passing of your mother, but amazed at her long life. I have fond memories of your mother, remembering her sweet, kind, gracious spirit. Proverbs 31 truly describes her in many ways. I trust that God's presence will comfort you until you see her again. With Heartfelt Sympathy, Lucy (Reinhart) Wissler

“ Lisa and Ron, I am so sorry for your loss

Aunt Janet was my favorite aunt

.we had a lot of fun times with your family. My favorite being when my parents and your parents and myself went camping. Aunt Janet made a pot of chili and knocked it on the ground and I got a picture of her down on her hands and knees scraping it off the ground. It was hilarious. I know they got a good pinochle game going on. Heaven gained another angel. Love ya, Terry

“ Ronnie & Lisa

We are all sad at the departure of Aunt Janet. She lived a LONG good life.

I can just see it now as those gates of Heaven opened to greet your mother. There was Uncle Harold and your brother Danny as well as all of the relatives. She is in good hands
