“ I was Janet Popyk's deacon visitor from Highland Presbyterian Church in Lancaster, PA.. We became acquainted one year ago when I was a new deacon. It was a pleasure to be around Mrs. Popyk. She was still communicative at that time and pointed out all the birthday cards and drawings made by her dear great grandchildren in honor of her 100th birthday. Those children brought her much joy. It wasn't hard to guess that she was much loved. My last visit with her was just this Sunday; I could tell it wouldn't be long. However, I prayed out loud that God would be merciful and welcome her home. She was a sweet, gentle lady of faith and I will miss her.

*My condolences to all the members of the Popyk Family,
