So beautiful our "Danny". We have enjoyed all those joyous expressions over our lifetime with her and our dear George!! These photos bring so many joyous memories ,times of laughter and tears! Danny taught me how to be myself as a Pastors wife to love that life knowing our partner was always on call and that was as important to our family as our husbands calling!! Danny has been such an important part of our lives that we carry her always in our hearts....We were so blessed with loving and being loved by our Danny. We miss you but know you are with George and our blessed Lord. Always Loved by us. Johnnie and Elaine Lengel and Family

“ Our sweet memory of Mrs. Geisler was when she rode down to NC with us to see Dorie & Elmer quite a number of years ago! We had great conversation, laughed a lot, & stopped in Virginia for ice cream! She was so happy enjoying every moment of her sundae! What a delight she was! We will treasure all those memories! Our condolences to the whole family! Love, Denny & Darlene
