“ I recall Jean as a warm and knowledgeable colleague who welcomed me to the College when I began at F&M in 1984. She embraced the introduction of my discipline, dance, to the curriculum, invited me to speak in her class, and gifted me with a beautiful flowered shirt as a thank-you! What a lovely introduction to F&M's collegiality and community spirit. I remember how grateful her students were for the experience of her class.

My condolences on your loss.

*Regards,

“ *Susan, Owen and Clayton-
Your mother was a wonderful friend, helpful neighbor, loyal parishioner at our church St. James and gifted teacher at the YWCA Women in Politics Course. I am grateful for the many ways I knew her and whenever we met she would update me on you and your families - a proud mother and grandmother. I am sorry for your loss.

“ Susan, Owen and Clayton,

I just wanted to let you know how sorry I am for your loss. Your mother has always held a special place in my heart as she never failed to make me feel special and loved when I would talk to her. No matter how long between times that I would see her, she would always seem so delighted to talk with me and I always felt the same about her. I will truly miss her smile and hugs. I will be unable to tell you personally how much she meant to me as I will be out of town this weekend during her Memorial Service. Please know that I will be thinking of all of you and your family's as you honor your mother this weekend.
