“ I'm sorry to hear of Jean's passing. My mother, Diane, and Jean were cousins. She would bring my mom communion when she was home bound with terminal cancer. She was always so kind to my mother and to us. A lovely lady and a super kind human being. When my mom passed away I would often think what a God send Jean was to us. She brought my mother such comfort in her final days and she was a comfort to us as well. God bless her and keep her.

“ My sincere condolences to Jean's family. I only found out of Jean's passing at Mass on Sunday, and wish I would have known in time to pay my respects at her funeral Mass. She was such a pleasant and consistent whiteness to our Lord, and servant of His will and His church. I feel blessed to have known her. I will never forget her visiting my Fagger-in-law and bringing him Communion, or just a pleasant "visit" the hospital or Manor Care over his last few years. I Am confident they our Lord met her with the word, "Well done good and faithful servant." MT 25:23. I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Jean’s family and friends. She was such a kind, devout and sweet person who selflessly gave of herself to so many and touched so many lives. She regularly visited my mother for years, bringing her Communion and good cheer. When I was in the hospital for cancer treatment she visited me often and continued for many many months even after I returned home. It was always a great comfort to have Jean visit. May she Rest In Peace.

“ I will always remember Jean as a friendly, quiet, kind classmate at Lancaster Catholic high school, Class of 1954. Since I will be out town on Thursday I will be unable to attend her Funeral Mass and would like to extend my condolences to all the members of her family. She will remain in my thoughts and prayers. “ Jean was such a beautiful, kind soul. When my dear mother became homebound she brought her communion every week and would stay to keep her updated on all that was going on in the parish. When my mother died at 98 Jean was one of the last people to come to the house to pray with her. She brought comfort and peace to us all. Now she is in heaven with all of her family and friends who have gone before her. God bless you and keep you Jean. I will never forget you! Sandy Schmalhofer
