Jeremy Lewis Shull (75) passed on to a new realm of life on Saturday, December 13, 2025. He was born in Stonega, VA, to Gordon Shull, a miner's doctor, and Jean Miller, a native of Canada.

Jeremy lived in several Appalachian coal-mining towns along the Tennessee and Kentucky borders before moving to a small town in Wilson, Niagara County, NY, at age 12. Thereafter, he, with his handsome surfer-boy looks, would spend the summers on Lake Ontario boating, swimming, and waterskiing. Jeremy attended Ohio State University and the State University of New York, at Buffalo, earning a B.S. degree in Management Accounting/Auditing. He spent a 35-year career with National Gypsum.

Jeremy was one of the original owners of the property, whose address would become part of the coveted Old Town Neighborhood in Lancaster City. Throughout his 46 years residing in Old Town, he was committed to the community and took an active role in planning and participating in neighborhood events. He was also a dedicated trombonist in the Sound of Roses band for over three decades. Jeremy will always be remembered for his gentle spirit, sense of humor, wonderful smile, and ever-so-faint Southern drawl.

In addition to his best buds and caregivers, Jim, Terry, and Molly, he is survived by four brothers and a sister. Bruce (Alice), Gary (Marcia), Brian (Judy), Stuart (Gloria), and Jeanette (Mike).

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Jeremy's Memorial Service at St. James Episcopal Church, 119 N. Duke Street, Lancaster, PA, on Tuesday, December 23, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. The family will receive friends from 10:30 a.m. until the time of service. The service will be livestreamed on Jeremy's Memorial Page, with the link found in the obituary. Interment will be at the St. James Memorial Garden immediately following the service.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Alzheimer's Association, 2595 Interstate Dr., Suite 100, Harrisburg, PA 17110.

“Jeremy was my manager at Howmet, later Alumax. He was the best boss I ever had in my entire working career (50 plus years). He was not only my favorite boss but a dear friend. He was kind, so much fun and a great human being. He was one person that made me realize my worth and made me feel special. I could never repay his kindness and how he made me feel. Rest in peace my friend!”

“Jeremy was constantly loving, supportive, and a good sport through 45 years of married life full of laughter, dancing, jokes, and adventures. He was my partner through every whacky idea I had, including making 5 trips to pick up tens of thousands of books I purchased from a deceased bookdealer's inventory. And the rescue cats! Dozens of them over the years. I kept wondering when he'd put his foot down, but he never did. I will always love you, Boobers. Your Goober, Jane Shull.”

“ Jeremy running, Jeremy’s cats, Jeremy’s smile, and our last conversation in the bar before a NOOT dinner: suddenly he exclaimed, “You’re beautiful! You really are! You’re beautiful!” I really don’t know what he was seeing at that moment, but we seemed to be surrounded by a brilliant light. It continues to glow in my heart.

“ I first met Jeremy on an Old Town House and Garden Tour. He was up in back by the pool of his house, which he had on tour, and casually mentioned that his home was going on the market soon. By the time I came out the front door I wanted to buy his house. So here I am, with the great privilege of living in the beautiful home he made. But the most wonderful thing about Jeremy was the friendship we had. He was one of the kindest, gentlest of men I’d ever met. That speaks to why he had so many good friends, especially Terry and Jim who were such superb caregivers when he needed them. And let’s not forget his best girl, Molly.

“ Jeremy was a great guy and always fun to be around. I have so many fond memories of playing in the Sound of Roses big band with him. The bus trips to gigs with him playing the Boomba, the battle of the bands at Sunnybrook Ballroom, actually getting some practice in between the kidding around at rehearsals. The trivia nights after rehearsal were a blast! And then there were the pool parties at his house. Jeremy was always there when anybody needed help.

“ Jimmy was my dear brother just 1 year younger than me. We went thru school together and most of our time was spent doing things together and we sure had many fun times together growing up in Wilson and continuing on all our lives as adults. Words cannot describe how close we were and I will cherish the memories forever as treasures from God. I love you dear brother and very thankful to Terry and Jim for being such good friends to my brother and in the last several years being such compassionate caregivers. You are now part of the Shull family. May God bless all my family and classmates and friends of my brother Jimmy. You will always be missed but never forgotten. Love Stuart & Gloria Shull
